

Photo by LONA O'CONNOR

It's All Greek in suburban Boca Raton serves up large portions of traditional Greek classics including stuffed grape leaves, gyros and souvlaki.

It's all really good at Greek restaurant, and affordable

MENU

All the Greek classics, from avgolemono soup and stuffed grape leaves to gyros and entrees with beef, fish, pork and, of course, lamb.

ATMOSPHERE

A line of tables, all full on a weeknight, the smell of roast lamb and garlic: Close your eyes and you could be in Athens, or maybe New York.

OUR FAVORITE FOOD/PRICE

The gyro pita ($8.95) is classic and enormous, a fluffy round of pita full of tender, seasoned lamb and beef slices and overflowing with tzatziki. The Athenian Chicken ($13.95) was a delightful surprise, with chicken wrapped around a succulent filling of spinach, onion, garlic and feta cheese. The pork souvlaki platter ($11.95) combined marinated pork with Greek salad and french fries so good they ought to be called Greek. And even if you can't pronounce galaktoboureko ($3.95), this nutmeg- and cinnamon-dusted delicate egg custard in filo dough will send you straight to Mount Olympus.

It's All Greek

9794 Clint Moore Road, Boca Raton, (561) 883-6337

Hours: Daily, 11 a.m.-9 p.m.

Note: Post writers will anonymously visit a restaurant in your neighborhood each week in search of the best menu item. They'll tell you about that item and why they liked it in this spot each week.

REASON TO GO

This place is all about the food. Greek food. And plenty of it, for a very reasonable price.

SERVICE

Young, pleasant servers, as quick as they could be, with a full restaurant.

NOISE LEVEL

Nobody had to shout to have a civilized conversation.

KID FRIENDLY

If your children like Greek food, they will be happy.

— LONA O'CONNOR